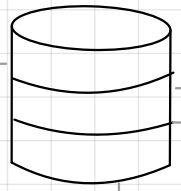
Data Model - DB

table: Users
- id: PK int
- last_name: varchar
- first_name: varchar
- role : varchar
  {student, prof, admin?}

table : Exams
- id: PK int
  exam_id: varchar
- question: varchar
- student_answer: varchar
- correct_answer: varchar
- feedback: varchar
- rating: varchar



PostgresDB

table : Questions
- id: PK int
- question: varchar
- answer: varchar
- difficulty: varchar
  {simple, intermediate, advanced}
- chapter* : int
  {1, 2, 3 ...}

* alt: topic : varchar

table: ExamRatings
- id: PK int
- exam_id : varchar
- exam_feedback: varchar
- exam_rating: int

table: StudentToExam
- id: PK int
- student_id : int
- exam_id : int

* The view needs to be protected. Profs can only see anonymized statistics, and each student can see his/her own statistics.

Questions N – M Exams

Users N – M StudentToExam

Exams 1 – 1 ExamRatings

Exams 1 – N StudentToExam

ExamRatings 1 – N StudentToExam